

THE MEDIEVAL PORT OF LONDON

A CONFERENCE ORGANISED BY THE DOCKLANDS HISTORY GROUP
TO BE HELD AT THE MUSEUM OF LONDON

SATURDAY

18th MAY 2019

Programme

AM Registration and refreshments

First Session

Chris Ellmers - Welcome and Opening Remarks

Paper 1: Gustav Milne – The Medieval Port of London - an overview.

Paper 2: Professor Vanessa Harding – City and Port - merchants and overseas trade.

Paper 3: Damian Goodburn – Ships and boats of the Medieval Port.

Paper 4: John Schofield – Medieval waterfront buildings.

Lunch – This is not provided but there are many places to eat nearby

PM Second Session

Paper 5: Alderman Alison Gowman– The Hanseatic Steelyard.

Paper 6: Laura Wright – Language and London Bridge

Paper 7: John Clark– The Medieval Thames: rubbish tip, accident black spot, or sacred river?

Coffee/tea

Third Session –

Paper 8: Nathalie Cohen – The Fishful Thames: the Anglo Saxon and medieval periods.

Questions and Answers

Edward Sargent – Concluding Remarks

5.30 Close of Meeting

This Conference organised by the Docklands History Group will take place in the Weston Theatre of the Museum of London, London Wall, EC2Y 5HN

For further information on the Conference and how to book a place, please visit our website at www.docklandshistorygroup.org.uk